MINNEAPOLIS GOLF CLUB

Established in Golden Valley in 1916, the Minneapolis Golf Club settled on its existing St. Louis Park location the following year. William D. Clark, a Scotsman, was hired in 1917 to finish Willie Park, Jr.’s, original design. In 1920, Donald Ross was enlisted to reconfigure the course routing, which remains essentially unchanged to this day. In 2007, Ross restoration specialist Ron Prichard was hired to refashion bunkers and tees, and bring the course up to modern standards. The classic Golden Era design underwent a complete turf renovation in 2020, which included creating larger green complexes featuring more flexible hole locations.

Minneapolis GC has hosted the Minnesota State Amateur Championship five times in the club’s 107-year history. Three early editions were conducted as match play, with Harrison “Jimmy” Johnston defeating Les Bolstad, 9 and 8, (1925), Dick Sawyer besting Oliver “Ole” Williamson, 3 and 1, (1936), and Henry Ernst taking down Don Holick, 3 and 2, (1953). After the MGA Amateur switched to stroke play, Jon Christian posted a 2-under-par 214 (77-65-72), five shots better than Jerry Dalen in 1988. And more recently, Kane Hanson (74-70-72) tied Brett Swedberg, Joe Stansberry and J.B. Lloyd at even-par 216, and prevailed on the first playoff hole in 2003.

LAST YEAR'S CHAMPIONSHIP

After an opening-round 66 on his home course at Olympic Hills Golf Club, Ben Greve hung on over the final two days of the 119th Minnesota Golf Association Amateur Championship in grueling conditions to claim a one-stroke victory over Jack Ebner for his first state title in five seasons.

Entering the final round with a five-stroke lead, Greve posted a 7-over 79 to claim his first state win since his back-to-back titles at the Minnesota State Open in 2016 and 2017.

Greve started fast by carding a birdie on the opening hole to move to 6-under for the championship and then got up-and-down from a greenside bunker at the third to save par.

Despite a pair of bogeys over his next six holes to turn in 4-under, Greve still maintained a four-shot advantage.

Unable to get up-and-down for par at the par-3 17th, Greve took a three-shot lead to the final hole, needing just double-bogey to win—and did exactly that, posting a final-round 79 to earn the victory at 2-over 218.

Ebner, a fifth-year senior at Miami University, posted a 75 during his opening round and followed it with an even-par 72 during the second round to begin the final round eight shots off the lead.

Stringing together four birdies midway through the final round, Ebner quickly climbed the leaderboard to challenge Greve at 1-over par. Three bogeys over his next six holes seemingly put him out of contention, but a birdie at the last would put him into second place at 3-over 219.

University of Iowa golfer Ian Meyer posted a final-round 74 to place tied for third with Bethel University's Conor Schubring at 4-over 220.

THE FIELD

There are a slew of formidable challengers including seven former MGA Amateur champions: Mike Christensen, Alexandria Golf Club (1995); Eric Deutsch, Northland Country Club (2004); John Dutoit, Northland Country Club (2015); Ben Greve, Olympic Hills Golf Club (2022); Bryce Hanstad, Hazeltine National Golf Club (2007); Clay Kucera, Somerby Golf Club (2019); and Trent Peterson, Windsong Farm (2008).

To enter the MGA Amateur Championship, a player must be an associate member of the MGA (through membership of an MGA member club) and carry a USGA Handicap Index of 6.4 or lower at the time of entry.

As of July 14, there are 127 players in the field with "plus" USGA Handicap Indexes (that is, having an index that is better than scratch), with Anders Larson atop the list of competitors at +7.2.

The oldest competitor in the field is Jerry Rose, Alexandria GC, 64 years, 9 months and 11 days; the youngest, Dylan Kringen, Spring Hill GC, 16 years, 1 month and 24 days.

ABOUT THE MGA

Founded in 1901, the Minnesota Golf Association is the governing body over amateur golf in the state, responsible for administering the Rules of Golf, and committed to uphold and promote the game of golf and its values for all golfers in Minnesota. The MGA conducts 23 major amateur championships and 14 USGA qualifying events each year. Thanks to the support of its member clubs and associate members, and the efforts of its volunteers and staff, the MGA provides a variety of services such as handicapping, course rating and measuring, an online golf news and information resource, mngolf.org, and an official publication, Minnesota Golfer magazine, which benefits all golfers throughout Minnesota.

Greve Hangs on to Win First State Amateur Championship

After Ben Greves' opening-round 66 on his home course at Olympic Hills Golf Club, the former University of Minnesota golfer hung on over the final two days of the 119th Minnesota Golf Association Amateur Championship in grueling conditions to claim a one-stroke victory over Jack Ebner for his first state title in five seasons.

"I played fantastic on Day One. The course wasn't as windy, but it was set up really difficult and it was long," Greve said. "I gave myself a big buffer coming in and, obviously, didn't have to play great the rest of the way."

"I didn't quite have it today like I did the other two days. I didn't control the ball as well and the speed with my putter was off all day. My game plan changed throughout the day, and I thought I did a really good job the first 12 holes of playing against myself and the course."

Entering the final round with a five-stroke lead, Greve posted a 7-over 79 to claim his first state win since his back-to-back titles at the Minnesota State Open in 2016 and 2017. His win marks the second consecutive wire-to-wire winner at the championship, and he becomes just the second player since 1948 to win the MGA Amateur Championship at his home course.

"It means a lot to win here," said Greve. "It's a fun place and we had six guys from our club play in the event and play well. I have a lot of friends out here and everyone was talking about the tournament the last few weeks going into it, so that part is really special."

Greve started fast by carding a birdie on the opening hole to move to 6-under for the championship and then got up-and-down from a greenside bunker at the third to save par.

Despite a pair of bogeys over his next six holes to turn in 4-under, Greve still maintained a four-shot advantage.

Even after two more bogeys over his first three holes of his back nine, Greve was fortunate enough to hold a four-stroke lead over University of St. Thomas golfer Matt Armstrong.

“[Having a four or five shot lead] is not always easy—to be aggressive or not to be aggressive, especially with 30 mph winds. I’m not always a great wind player. I like to fade the ball and did a good job most of the time hitting small shots into the wind.”

Greve gave away a stroke with a three-putt bogey at the 14th, but made a critical eight-foot putt to save par at the 15th to produce a bit of momentum.

“At the moment on 13 and 14 when it got a little close, part of me liked that because I quit trying to hit it middle of the green and away from everything,” he said. “I tried to attack a little bit more again, hit some good shots and was in some better positions.”

With a bogey at the par-3 17th, Greve took a three-shot lead to the final hole, needing just double-bogey to win—and did exactly that, posting a final-round 79 to earn the victory at 2-over 2018.

“I didn’t do a good job on 17 and 18,” Greve said. “I took a look at the leaderboard, took a deep breath and got a little sloppy, to be honest.”

Ebner, a fifth-year senior at Miami University, posted a 75 during his opening round and followed it with an even par 72 during the second round to begin the final round eight shots off the lead.

through the final round, Ebner quickly climbed the leaderboard to challenge Greve at 1-over par. Three bogeys over his next six holes seemingly put the former Edina High School golfer out of contention, but a birdie at the last earned a second place finish at 3-over par 219.

“For me, the key this week was accepting the fact that bogeys were going to happen,” Ebner said. “The greens are really tough and the course is long and you can’t let the bogeys derail rounds.”

“You try to bounce back and take advantage when you can, and I did that really well this week.”

University of Iowa golfer Ian Meyer posted a final-round 74 to place tied for third with Bethel University’s Conor Schubring at 4-over par 220.
